Baptism
Study Questions

- 1). Read Mark 16:15-16 – How should we understand the phrase, ‘all the world’?
  - a). Which scriptures did we look at that would show us this within Christ’s earthly ministry?
  - b). How is this the same for the 12 when the Lord sends them out?
  - c). Read Galatians 2:7-9 what do we learn from this scripture?
  - d). According to the verses in Mark what did Jesus say had to be done in order to be saved?
  - e). So, which salvation are we talking about and how would we know?
  - f). Which scriptures did we look at from the Book of Acts that show this same thing?
  - g). ‘he who does not believe will be condemned’ – How should we understand the idea of ‘condemned’ by comparing Mark 16:16 with Romans 8:1?
  - h). According to the phrase itself, when will this condemnation take place?
  - i). Read John 3:18 – What condemnation is the Lord speaking about in this verse?

j). How does this verse prove for us that ‘condemned’ in Mark is dealing with something outside of eternal issues?

k). So then, if the ‘condemnation’ in Mark has to do with Christ’s Judgment Seat to what does the word ‘believe’ refer?

2). To whom did Christ speak these words recorded in Mark?

a). What did the Lord say was the purpose for His advent?

b). How does this further corroborate what we have just said about the word ‘believe’?

3). Read Genesis 1:9-13 – which Day is being described here?

a). What has been necessary to make day 3 possible and what does this picture for us?

b). What do we learn from day 3 then about producing fruit?

c). Read Exodus 14:21-22 – How long after leaving Egypt is it until Israel crosses the Red Sea?

d). What had already taken place that made this crossing possible?

e). What does their passage through the Red Sea picture for us?

f). How was this passage made possible?

g). What was to happen when they came up out of the water and what was the purpose for this?

4). 1Co 5:7b...For indeed Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us.

a). What event in our life does this verse point to?

b). Read Acts 16:30-33 – What question does the Philippian jailer ask?

b). What reply is he given?

c). Read v32 again – is this the same thing as we see in v31?

d). What do you think speaking ‘the word of the Lord’ to them is all about?

e). What happens immediately following this word being spoken to them?

f). Does this have anything to do with their eternal salvation?

g). Within our own experience then, what should follow our eternal salvation?

5). Read Matthew 3:13 – 4:1 – what is the sequence of events here that ‘fulfills all righteousness’?

a). What does 4:1 tell us and why was this necessary? Which scripture did we look at in connection with this?

b). What does all this teach us about our own experience?

c). Read 1 Peter 1:3-9 – What commentary does this scripture provide on that which we have just been looking at?

6). Read Romans 6:3-12 – How are we ‘baptized into His death’?

a). What then do we learn from this scripture?

b). How does it connect to the foundation in Genesis?

c). Which other scriptures did we look at in connection with this?

d). What do we see in 1 Peter 1:20-21 and what commentary does the Lord give on this in Hebrews?

e). What was it that Noah believed that caused him to build the ark?

f). How did he come by this knowledge? And how does this connect with our own experience as we see in John 16?

g) Can you make any connection here between Noah and the 5 wise virgins?

h). What application do Noah’s actions have within our experience?

7). Explain the significance of baptism with respect to the saving of the soul.

a). Any final thoughts?
