

Sunday March 31st 2013
Resurrection Day
The Lord is Risen
Study Questions

1). Read Luke 24:19-27 – Which 3 foundational elements do we find in these verses?

a). What is the context in which this encounter takes place?

b). What does Jesus do to give these disciples understanding of the events they have witnessed? Where does the Lord begin?

2). Ge 1:1 ¶ In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. – What part did Jesus play in this and how would we know? What other scripture [not in today's message] gives us additional commentary on this?

a). Read Genesis 1:1-5 – How do we see the Lord Jesus in these verses and what other scriptures did we look at in connection with this?

b). What is the implicit promise found in these verses?

3). What do we see pictured in Genesis 1:2?

a). Read Genesis 1:9-13 – What do the events of v9-10 make possible?

b). How do we see the resurrection of Christ in this and which scripture did we look at in connection with this?

c). From our timeline what happens on the 3rd day [the 3rd 1000 years] and how does this connect with the Genesis account of the 3rd day?

d). What is the pivotal event that precipitates this and what are the 2 essential parts of this event?

e). What does all of this teach us about a future '3rd day' with regards to the nation of Israel?

f). How is this typified through the experience of Jonah?

4). Read Genesis 1:14-19 – Why are the lights here different from the lights in v3?

a). What do the 2 lights here have to do with?

b). What is significant about this being the 4th day and how do we see the Lord in this? Which scripture did we look at?

c). What commentary do we get from the account of David and Saul for this? Which scriptures did we look at?

5). Read Genesis 1:26-31 – what is the primary event recorded in these verses?

- a). Why could this only happen following the events of the 3rd day?
- b). How does all this relate to Christ and to us?

6). Read Genesis 3:6 - What can we know from this verse about the actions of the Woman and the Man?

- a). How do we see Christ in this and which scriptures did we look at?
- b). Where do we find the foundational type for the means of redemption?

- c). How is this foundational picture added to through the account of Cain and Abel? Scripture?

- d). How is this picture added to through the account of Abraham and Isaac? Scripture?

- e). How is this picture added to through the account of the first Passover? Scripture?

- f). How do all of these relate to Christ? Any scriptures?

- g). What was done with the Passover lambs between the 10th and the 14th day?

- h). How does this relate to Christ? Any scriptures?
- i). What does the type of the first Passover tell us about Israel yet future?
- j). What does the type of the first Passover tell us about our own experience?
- k). Which scripture did we look at in connection with this?
- l). From all we have studied, why do you think that Jesus began at Moses when talking to the disciples on the Emmaus road?
- m). How would studying Genesis add to our own understanding of our salvation past, present and future?
- n). How is the 3rd day connected to regality?
- 7). Read 1 Corinthians 2:8 – Why do you think this would be so?
- a). What if anything has had the most significant impact on you today?
- 8). Any final thoughts, comments, questions?