Ruth
Part Thirteen
Study Questions

1). Read Ruth 2:20 – Given what we see in this verse why does Ruth prepare herself to go to Boaz’s threshing floor?

a). Read Ruth 1:11-13 – What is Naomi talking about in these verses and where do we find this in Deuteronomy?

b). Having read what we find in Deuteronomy, which we see played out in the Book of Ruth, why do you think God attaches such great importance to redeeming inheritance?

c). How should we see this with regards to Adam in the foundation?

d). How do we see this same thing with regards to Israel?

e). What do Lucifer, Adam, Israel and the Church all have in common?

f). Thinking about what we have been studying, why do you think Christ is called 'the second man' and 'the last Adam'?

2). Read Ruth 3:6 again – What is the antitype of what we see here?

a). Read 2 Corinthians 5:10 – What does this verse tell us?

b). In addition to the type we find in Ruth Chapter 3, where are the other types showing the resurrection/rapture of the church that prove 2 Corinthians 5:10 to be true?

3). Read Ruth 3:7-8 – What can we learn from the part of v7 up to the semi-colon and how would this be fulfilled in the antitype?

a). Explain why Ruth uncovers Boaz's feet.

b). Read Ruth 4:12 – What is the connection between what we see in this verse and Ruth uncovering Boaz’s feet?

c). How do we explain the reference to midnight coming after Boaz has finished his work on the threshing floor and which example from the Revelation did we look at that shows this same scriptural technique?

d). What is the only response that Boaz can make to Ruth and why can he only respond one way?

e). What do we learn here about the antitype for this and which scriptures did we look at in connection with this?

f). How is that which happens at the end of the 6th day in Genesis fulfilled at the end of 6000 years [6 days]?

g). Knowing all of this what does it say to you personally about your race of the faith?

h). Any final thoughts?
