

Sunday June 26th 2016
'The Eyes Have It'
Part One
Study Questions

1). Read Revelation 3:14-18 – Which church are these verses talking to and what is significant about this particular church?

a). What is this 'church' admonished to do in order to change their situation?

b). Thinking in the natural – what would be the purpose for eye salve?

c). Thinking in the spiritual – which scripture other than Revelation did we look at would describe the condition of the Laodicean church?

d). What is the scriptural location for these verses and how do they connect with Revelation 3:14-18?

2). Read Proverbs 7:1-4 – What do the phrases ‘my commands’ and ‘my law’ refer to?

a). What does it mean that these are to be the ‘apple’ of our eye?

b). According to these verses how are we to have life in the age to come and which other verses did we look at in connection with this?

c). Read Genesis 1:3, Isaiah 8:20, Psalm 36:9, 2 Corinthians 4:6 – What do these verses teach us?

3). Read Isaiah 58:8-11 – According to these verses what should be our correct perspective on God’s word?

a). How would this connect with Ephesians 1:21-23?

b). Read John 1:1 – What does this verse tell us about the Word and what would this mean for the way we are to understand it?

c). What additional help does Hebrews 6:13 give to us in understanding this?

d). Read Genesis 1:1 and Psalm 14:1 – We might we learn from these 2 verses?

e). Although in human terms the Word of God cannot be proven, what has been our experience with it over the years and which scriptures did we look at that confirm this?

f). Read Hebrews 13:8 – What do we learn from this verse and what implication does this have for our understanding of the Word?

4). Taking the principle we have learned here about the pupil of our eye what does this mean for how we are to understand the husband/wife relationship?

a). What impact does this have on how we relate to one another and which scriptures did we look at?

b). What about the things that go on in the world around us and where did we see God's perspective on the wisdom of the world?

c). We have seen how we are to see the world, how does God view us and which scriptures did we look at?

d). Any final thoughts?